RELEASE OF RIGHTS

Name: _____ Missions Team Going to: _____

We live in a world that is full of rights. Our particular culture is one where we take pride in our rights. The rights of individuals are constitutional; however it seems that as we see the demand of individual rights increase, we see more of the moral fiber of our society decrease. Our Lord Jesus Christ laid down His rights to the heavens and all His glory to become a man and to serve, not to be served (Philippians 2:5-11, Mark 10:45)

Consider laying down your rights on this mission trip. Not to lay them down for better or worse, but to entrust them to the Lord and transfer the responsibility of them to a place of safekeeping. These rights may seem reasonable but could still cause dissension on a short-term missions trip. Take time to search your heart and willingly surrender your rights to the Lord.

Romans 12:1

I give up my right to:

A comfortable bed
Three meals a day
Familiar food
Dressing fashionably
Seeing results
Control of myself and others
Pleasant circumstances
Making decisions
Taking up offenses
Being successful
Being understood
Being heard
Being right

I trust God for:

My strength and endurance
My health
My likes and dislikes of food
My security
My purposes and fruit in His timing
My need for His spiritual control
My circumstances
His purpose in making me Christ-like
The privilege of suffering for His sake
His sovereign hand on my life
My security in His love
My reputation
My need

I yield to God my life that He may do anything He wishes to me, with me, in me, or through me that would glorify Him.
